

FIU April 3, 2020 Update

On Wednesday, April 1, 2020, Florida Governor Ron DeSantis issued a stay-at home order through April 30, 2020. While the School continues to be open and operational, staff is working from home. Campus hours are minimal as essential office personnel are on campus when it is required to perform the essential function on site. To reach staff, please visit our website (<https://fiupensacola.edu/>) and complete the “Contact Us” form with a brief description. The form will be directed to the proper staff member.

As the situation changes, we are in direct communication with our Medical Director and adjusting policies, procedures and guidelines as needed. FIU continues to monitor information from the CDC, The President, The Governor of Florida, Department of Education, Florida Commission for Independent Education, Veterans Affairs and AHBES and follow their guidelines and recommendations. As needed changes to policy occurs, we will notify students and staff and also post the information on our website - <https://fiupensacola.edu/>. Updates on the virus, including the number of confirmed cases in each county, are available at floridahealth.gov.

FIU continues to accept applications for the July 2020 Class. Please visit <https://fiupensacola.edu/admission-requirements/> for admissions information. Application packets will be reviewed for acceptance as they are received. If you have questions regarding admissions, financial aid or general questions. please visit our website (<https://fiupensacola.edu/>) and complete the “Contact Us” form with a brief description or email us at info@fiupensacola.edu.
